

Information & Invitation for the International Mountain Guide sport climbing championship

25th and 26th of October 2019 in Kempten

Dear Mountain Guide Colleagues,

Common mountain guide events like ski races and climbing championships fulfil the spirit of an international exchange since a long time. So we are happy to awake this spirit with organizing the international sport climbing championship this year. We like to use this event to cultivate friendship and to make new acquaintances.

The motivation of participating in championships is manifold. Some are interested in a sportive challenge, others in competing, but most are interested in meeting friends and having a good time together.

In the name of all participants I like to thank the team from the German Association VDDBS for organizing this event with big enthusiasm in the lovely town of Kempten this year. I hope, that many Guides together with their families will find the way to Kempten, following the motto: being there and having fun!
